VisComm1001: Visual Communications (3 semester credits)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students in this course gain an understanding of the essentials of communicating visually and apply this understanding in context. Students will explore visual theories and key elements and principles of visual design, with an emphasis on color, typography, and layout. Students will learn how to analyze a visual design and will understand the role that visual communications play in today's society.

Course Effective Dates: March 2019 - Present

Prerequisite(s): Entry level Gen Ed course – no prerequisites

Length of course: This is a self-paced course. Students have 60 days with an additional 30 day extension (if needed) to complete the course.

ACE CREDIT® Recommendation: In the lower-division baccalaureate/associate degree category, 3 semester hours in communications, visual communications, or media arts (2/19).

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Examine basic visual design concepts.
2. Distinguish how color, type, and layout contribute to communication.
3. Analyze and evaluate the role of design in visual communications.
